Mayor Ben Lawrence called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m.

2012 Library Annual report

Jennifer Blickenstaff, Library Board President, commented on the report which included programming, goals, and financial information. Ms. Blickenstaff introduced Veronica McAsey as the new library director and thanked City staff for their assistance in that process.

Ms. McAsey stated she is currently reviewing policies and employee files and would like to survey the community for their input about the library. She added she would like to continue the good communication with the City.

Recycle/trash program

Council Member Byron Stout is interested in options the City has to re-negotiate the current contract with Waste Connections.

Rick Lanzrath presented information on the current programs benefits not only for the citizens but the City itself. Mr. Lanzrath explained how customer service issues were handled and would look in to obtaining the customer service rating and stats for Council Member Byron Stout.

Ms. Stiles will confirm with City Attorney Norman Manley information regarding the tie in of the original Stutzman contract with the current Waste Connections contract and provide the definition of re-negotiate.

A motion was made by Council Member Caroline Hale, seconded by Council Member Sheri Geisler to adjourn at 7:55 p.m. Motion carried 5/0.

Respectfully Submitted by

Susan Renner
